FOREWORD

We seniors offer this Axis as a record of our high school interests and activities, and we hope that our book may be enjoyable now, and in time to come may recall many pleasant memories. In it, we have stressed the informality of our school life chiefly by means of pictures in order to give you an accurate glimpse of our school year.

We dedicate this book to all of our real friends, the persons who honestly desire our happiness. True friendship is one of the most precious gifts that life can give us, and our friends are the people who most influence us. To you, our friends, who, because of your understanding and confidence have helped to shape our lives, we leave our Axis.

F A R E W E L L

We have within us the ability to choose the Good, the True, and the Beautiful. Indelibly engraved upon the tablets of time, these qualities have represented the requirements of happiness and success. Striving toward these ideals, Goodness, Truth, Beauty, we plan carefully. From the many possible courses of actions we choose the wisest. We cultivate the ability to think. When a moral issue confronts us, we choose the good. We do not bring disgrace upon ourselves nor upon others. Realizing that the world owes nobody a living unless he earns it, we vow to do every task so well that both we and our employer will be proud. Self pity is not near. Service reigns. Adversity, tragedy, and sadness may come, but we "strive to seek, to find, and not to yield." We are ready to listen and to learn. We are seeking the Beautiful, the Good, and the True. Happy and successful are all those who obtain these golden links in education. May we have helped you to attain these ideals.

—Mr. Erwin,
Principal

REFLECTIONS

In 1935-36 Photographers Atkins, Richey and Taggart were arranging the setting of a picture to include eighty subjects moving, changing and sometimes dropping out entirely. It was decided to tint the picture blue and gold to give it a more vivid description and variety of expression. Three outstanding individuals on the front row were John McConnell, Dick Nichols, and Bill Carroll.

Several who came from the background to the foreground were Jim Haniford, Herman Knesek and John Lamphier, all of whom provided plenty of scrap on the gridiron; while Bob Briggs and Wilbur Hoshaw starred on the hardwood. Not far behind our athletes we see the faces of our musicians, Dick Hill, Clarence Veach, Dick Nichols, and Bob LaCroix, who have a monopoly on the drum section of the band.

Some more confusion in the background proved to be the "freshie" girls learning of the "Big Sister" party given by the Senior girls at school.

During the "take" Mary Davis, Bea Sellers, Bill Carroll, and Charlotte Kaiser, stepped into the foreground. From a candid camera shot, we see the sophomores sponsored a show, "Pigskin Parade", and were successful in making a profit of $40.00. Along the athletic line, we were proud to claim LaVerne King, and Dick Robinon, the "pigskinners". The Bruce Triplets, Gladys Kinne, Mildred Dickens, and Bea Sellers starred in basketball and made the Girls' Varsity.

During the process of "developing" the picture, Ed Metz, Leone Bruce, Charlotte Kaiser, and Bill Carroll stood out from the rest. Under the able direction of Mrs. Spray, we presented the play "Green Stockings", by which we netted a profit of $175.00, the most in the history of the high school. We also augmented our treasury by selling Crown Point reflectors for automobiles. At this time we found several scholars, debaters and song-birds. Bill Carroll, Mary Davis, and Helen Mikuta were outstanding figures in debate, while Vera Mae Phillips, Lois Woods, and Helen Bruce were selected to be members of the Triple Trio. Dick Kammert, Clarence Veach, and Clifford McElwee represented the class of '39 in the Boys' Ensemble.

None of us will forget the setting for the eventful Junior-Senior Prom--the beautiful garden scene, with the setting sun and the solid ceiling of white balloons. Our lovely decorations graced the Senior Baccalaureate and kept things "popping."

Through the cooperation of Photographers Hiatt, Ferris, and Bowen, and the leaders, Dick Nichols, Helen Bruce, Mary Davis, and Leone Bruce, we were able to put the "finishing" touches on our picture. Outstanding figures on the gridiron were Haniford, King, Buche, Hoffman, Holmquist, Ziese, and Herman and Harvey Knesek; while Pettit, Falkiner, and King were the nucleus of the hardwood varsity. Two more figures who came to the front were Ed Metz, who was highest scholastically in the class and therefore valedictorian, and Helen Bruce, who won the D. A. R. Citizenship Award.

The class of '39 claims three of the four cheer leaders: Bea Sellers, Vera Mae Phillips, and Dick Kammert. Bea was also crowned Queen of the High School carnival this year.

During the last few seconds of the "setting" we successfully presented our play "Spring Fever" and worked cooperatively on the Yearbook.

During the entire "setting of the picture" the constant cooperation and good fellowship of our classmates gave us something we will not soon forget and strengthened our belief that "Preparedness is the Keynote to Success!"

FOG

We, the members of the Senior class, having completed four hectic and nerve-wracking years of strenuous labor, being in sound frame and structure ( I hope) do hereby transfer, hand down, set over, our most needed and precious "stuff" to our under-graduates, who, we believe, will appreciate and enjoy these hand-downs as much as we have.

I, Esther Abramson, will my characteristic of being seen but not heard to Shirley Benson.

I, "Hank" Baum, will my Dodge to anyone who thinks he can handle it.

I, Nellie Beem, will my quietness to Mary Nowvskie.

I, Helen Bruce, will my temperament to Lillian Wietbrock.

I, Leone Bruce, will my athletic enthusiasm to Velda Seramur, who is well under way.

I, Jeanette Bruce, will a package of wear-ever chewing gum to Coach Ferris.

I, "Weenie" Buche, will my athletic ability to "Percy" Blakeman.

I, Bill Carroll, will a broken leg to each member of the faculty.

I, Chuck Clark, will my weakness for "females" to John Beck.

I, Ruth Cooper, will my ability to "yodel" to Bernard Lewis.

I, Mary Davis, will my "liking" for Chevies to Bibs' "steady", if he ever gets one.

I, Mildred Dickens, will my baseball talent to Iva Jean Ammerman.

We, Dick Falkiner, and Harold Pettit, will our positions on the varsity to Harold Horst and Bud McFadden.

I, Mildred Falke, will my stenographic position to Lois Peterson.

I, Paul Farster, will my "monkey" business to Bud Young.

I, Ferne Fauser, will my secretarial ability to Dorothy Barnhart.

I, Wilbur Fiegle, will my "modest" ways to June Buyer.

I, Jean Firman, will my low alto voice to Mary Ellen Hagen.

I, Dorothy Fronek, will my liking for "barn dances" to some country lassie.

I, LaVerne Hack, will my height to "Vickie" Sato.

I, Jim Haniford, need everything I have.

I, Jean Hershey, will my ability to play the trombone to Burdette Bisselberg.

I, Dick Hill, will my scrumptious vocabulary to anyone who is intelligent enough to use it.

I, Eddie Hoffman, will my happy, carefree ways to Dick Bowen.

I, Wanda Hoffman, will my short stature to Ellen Fischer.

I, Hilding Holmquist, will my lazy disposition to anybody who will accept it.

I, Irene Huseman, will my knack for sewing to those "gayminded sophomore girls".

I, Charlotte Kaiser, will my DISLIKE for school to Eleanor Heidebreder.

I, Dick Kammert, will my ability to do everything and get by with it to Bob Batterman.

I, Kathleen Kaper, will my line of "gab" to Alice Goethal.

I, LaVerne King, will my ability to play left-end position on the gridiron to Donald Danielson.

I, Gladys Kinne, will my love to sports to Irene Phillips.

I, Harvey Knesek, will the responsibilities and numerous duties as team manager, and the keys that go with it to Ralph Henderlong.

I, Herman Knesek, will my ability to "gab" to anyone who can keep up.
 I, Bob Kretchmar, will my "pipe" to Dick LaCroix.
 I, Joe LaBuda, will my quiet manners to Leon Lump.
 I, Bernice Lae, will to Florence Steuer and Lila Vick the ability to keep their friendship and partnership as I have done with Emma Neimeyer.
 I, Chuck Lewis, will "Arline" to my brother, Harry. (Take good care of her.)
 I, Dick Likens, will my "flirtatious" personality to Gerald Horst.
 I, Annabelle Luke, will my 4-H leadership to Jane Heinze.
 I, Clifford McElwee, will my sister, Lillie Mae, to some knightly young fellow to look after.
 I, Ed Metz, will my dignity and poise to "Killer" Keene.
 I, Helen Mikuta, will my debating talent to John Winberry.
 I, Hazel Nichols, will my enthusiasm for library books to any book worm.
 I, Dick Nichols, will my Lowell attraction to Bob Westphal, who can't break the ice.
 I, Emma Neimeyer, will my talkative manner and well-known giggle to Mary Ellen Strong; I hope she uses it.
 I, Betty Osborne, will my popularity in dramatics class to Rosemary Biegel.
 I, Freida Pfost, will my "high heel shoes" to Dorothy Tyler.
 I, Vera Mae Phillips, will my pep for leading yells to Bud Young. (Come on Bud, use a little.)
 I, Dale Robertson, will my ability to get along with the teachers to "Kenny" Holmquist.
 I, Irene Rouhselange, will my collegiate interests to June Buyer, who is fast learning the ropes.
 I, Elizabeth Schiesser, will my bashfulness to Margaret Stillson.
 I, Anna Belle Schnieder, will my blond hair to Janet Place.
 I, Bea Sellers, will my school-girl figure to my friend, Mary Kolling, and hope that she can make the grade.
 I, Jane Smith, will my "bow-legs" to anyone bothered with "knock-knees."
 I, Gladys Spitson, will my Valpo "steady" to—no one.
 I, Ted Steger, will my "popularity" with the "fems" to Elwood Kelsey.
 I, George Stratton, will my industry to Cecil Riley.
 I, Eva Mae Utpatel, will my prim and lady-like manners to my friend,
 Francis Patton. (Use'm PATTON)
 I, Gertrude Vande Craats, will my studious ability to Helen Fulk.
 I, Bill Wagner, will my every night date at "Hoggies" to Wilbur Huseman.
 I, Gertrude Wehner, will my weak voice to Mr. Reed.
 I, Alice Whitehead, will my ability to catch a college love to anyone desiring to do the same.
 I, Lois Woods, will my stubborn disposition to anybody who can "take" it.
 I, Evelyn Wornhoff, will my "tubbyness" to Betty Haynes.
 I, Clayton Ziese, will my GOOD times to Bob Veach.

In testimony thereof, we hereunto set the signature of the Senior class of nineteen hundred and thirty nine, on this FIFTH day of MAY 1939.

—SENIOR CLASS

TRIPOD

HELEN

JEANETTE

The senior class of Crown Point High School proudly presents the Bruce triplets—Helen, Leone, and Jeanette, alike as “three peas in a pod,” and yet decidedly different to us who know them so well!

All three girls especially like steaks, frozen salads, and hot fudge sundaes, while Leone alone does not care for vegetables. They are very sports minded, even in their taste for clothing. The favorite sports of the girls are swimming, basketball, baseball, and tennis; while they hope to be active in many college sports, also. Helen plans to become a dietetics teacher; Leone wants to be an athletic director; and Jeanette will study commercial work.

Helen seems to be the older in disposition, and somewhat more mature in mannerisms. When the triplets were away from their parents as children, she was the spokesman, and is perhaps more positive in her likes and dislikes.

Leone became an athletic enthusiast in high school. She is light-hearted, laughs easily, and seems able to get some pleasure out of nearly everything that takes place.

Jeanette pursues a good time with a perseverance that never gives out. She is always ready for another trip, another party, or another game, whether close at hand or far away.

After they started to school, it was the experience of most of the teachers not to know the children apart for the first few months, and then before the year was out, the teachers would be telling Mr. and Mrs. Bruce that the children did not look alike, but that they had pronounced differences in their interests.

It was noticeable that Helen took an interest in drawing and painting, and that Leone had a marked interest in athletics. Jeanette devoted a great deal of time to music, and Helen practically none.

School has seemed to take on an added interest for all the girls as they have grown older; and in high school the girls have responded to the activities program provided by the present-day school methods, until their Dad has complained lest the activities overshadow the school work itself.

VISIBILITY UNLIMITED

Glancing into the crystal ball of the famous clairvoyant, Alley Ben Bowling, we visioned the future of the following seniors ten years hence.

ESTHER ABRAMSON—Living on the new Krieter farm.

HENRY BAUM—Dignified and respected as the Sheriff of Lake County.

NELLIE BEEM—Driving No. 44, the crack street car of the Gary Transportation Co.

HELEN, LEONE and JEANETTE—Doing a trio singing act over the radio.

WENTEL BUCHE—A second Don Lash of the Safety Highway Police.

BILL CARROLL—President of the U. S. and the most sought-after bachelor in North America.

CHUCK CLARK—Taking a four-year post grad at Sing-Sing for boot-legging.

RUTH COOPER—Genuine cow girl on a dude ranch.

MARY DAVIS—Fan dancing to support a worthless husband—or two.

MILDRED DICKENS—Wondering what would happen if the "King" should abdicate.

DICK FALKINER—Star basketball player at N. U.

MILDRED FALKE—Winning laurels in the field of Domestic Science at Purdue.

PAUL FARSTER—Wandering in Asia still searching for the person who stole the C. P. H. S. paper stretcher.

FERNE FAUSER—Manicuring hands of millionaire bankers.

WILBUR FIEGLE—Having fun on the farm.

JEAN FIRMAN—Bouncer at a Cedar Lake night club.

DOROTHY FRONEK, EMMA NEIMEYER and KATHLEEN KAPER—Barn dancing over W. L. S. to the tune of $50 a week.

LAVERNE HACK—Stuck at home with LaVerne Jr. while hubby attends his Saturday night "Western".

JIM HANIFORD—Coaching football at Purdue.

JEAN HERSHEY—Walking home with Evie Linton.

DICK HILL—President of Pepsi-Cola with offices above "Hoggy" Meyer's.

EDDIE HOFFMAN—Job hunting on the streets of Chicago.

WANDA HOFFMAN—Stenographing for a wild west cowboy.

HILDING HOLMQUIST—Teaching all the children in the neighborhood how to drive a teacher insane.

IRENE HUSEMAN—Always a bridesmaid but never a bride.

CHARLOTTE KAISER—President of the "Tweedle-Dum-Dee" Old Maid's Home."

DICK KAMMERT—Taking candy from under-privileged children.

LAVERNE KING—Taking care of baby while Mildred is at work.

THE FINAL FOCUS

The day was LUKE warm, and flies droned overhead as ROBERT'S SON, DALE, and the FIR-MAN'S daughter, JEAN, were sitting on a stump in the WOODS with LOIS by the three BRUCE trees.

The day was LUKE warm, and who should come along but the KING with his grand WHITE HEAD having a DICKENS of a time trying to BEAT the RICE for his supper. He pulled a RIG-LEAF from the tree near by, and sat down on an over-turned POST. While he continued with his preparations for supper, he talked to the group which grew larger and larger as Emma Niemeyer, HER-MAN KNESEK and C. Clark drove in on the HACK which was LaVerne's one pride and joy.

The KING was quite absorbed in his work as he put forth a non-chalant question. "What are you going to do after the last day of school?"

Chuck said, "I'll be all "WORN-OFF" by the time I reach the HILL, so I'll relax."

Betty Osborne KAPERed in and said, "Oh, he can't do that, "KIN-NE"?

CARROLLing and BEEMing like a little boy, Dicky Nichols hopped in and LAE down, for he, too, was tired of the long climb to the top of the HILL. "Me-too," he added.

"Well, well," muttered the KING, "All tired, eh?"

Ziese strolled in and said, "I feel like BAUMing the place. I'm so happy!

As Ted STEGERed on the scene, he seemed to get the "drift" of the situation. "WRIGHT, WRIGHT", that's the way to feel," he cried, giving poor Katie not a chance to say anything.

PETTIT Vera Mae clambered up and chimed in with, "I'm going to ask Mama for some NICHOLS. Then I'm going to PHIL-LUP my HANDY-FORD and take the Smith girl for a ride."

"Oh, SELL-ER!" called the Smith girl.

Ah, ha! Who should stroll in on the group but Wanda, her HUFF-MAN, Eddie Harvey, as if he were a ton of Clay, and little Gertie, WEH-NER the end of the line. Gertie pulled out some FERNES near-by and some flowers that were 'LA-BUD-Ad out, and then she looked thoughtful. HAR-OLD friend Jean walked in and said that SHIE-SSER (she sure) was glad that she were through. It 'CHAR was a LOTTE of work! What about McKnight? Did he LIKE'NS school, or didn't he? "GLAD-Y'S to be out," remarked Spitsen.

FARSTER and FARSTER, the KING BEAT his RICE. There comes Metz. "HUSE MAN is he?" inquired Bob Kretchmar as HE-LENeD on a WEE CLIFF?

"WEN'TEL" said Buche. Then up came Hiding in QUEST of his HOME.

Falkiner then came up and DAV'IS opinion. "Oh, I want to be a COOPER after school's out. Falke was MILD RED to say the least in exclaiming that she was glad the trip was done. ABRAM' SON, Charlie, then made his appearance.

Ahoy! There comes MI KUTIE, Eva. E-NIE she sweet? Dorothy Fronek and ANN'ther BELLE, Gertrude Vande Craats, and last of all Dick Kammert, George Stratton and Bill Wagner joined the assemblage.

"Are we all here?" asked the KING.

"Yes, yes, to be sure," they all cried. "When do we eat?"

"Before we begin, I'd like you to commit yourself," said the KING. The question did not have to be asked for heads nodded, lips quivered, and tears fell as The Last Supper was commenced, for all were sorry the day was done.

Eighth Row—Donald Robertson, Orson Ruehl, Joan Schafer, Carl Schmidt, Jack Shultz, Mary Smith, Virginia Smith, Marion Stoerker, Everett Teagle, Mary Via, Hardin Williams, Norma Wise.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE

An exceedingly active group out at the portable this year accomplished great things. They out-earned all other classes at the carnival and also elected Bruce Shisler as king of this annual function. With the money in their treasury they bought basketball suits, a pop-corn machine, letter awards for the deserving basketball teams, and had numerous parties and picnics. In athletics their teams did admirably. The football team won both of its encounters with St. Mary's and lost only one out of four softball games, that one to Lowell in a conference heat. During their regular season of basketball, the grade team played eleven games, winning 8, losing 3. The "Bull Pups" placed second in the Little 8 conference, winning 6 of the 8 contests. Both times they lost to Griffith who came out at the top of the conference. The team's followers were led in yells by Edgar Baker, Flora Ann Nichols, and Mary Ann Pettibone.

JUNIOR HIGH B. B. TEAM

First Row—Richard Banser (Mgr.), Kenneth Ringen, John Swanson, Carl Schmidt, Billy Whitehead, Edward Heuer, Murrel Belanger.

Crown Point's 1938 Bulldog gridders boast a record of three wins, five losses, and one tie. Compared with past years, this season was a big success. The team possessed a wealth of power, brains, and experience which accounts for the good showing made. With most of the 1937 team back and with the addition of several underclassmen, Coach Ferris developed a team that was feared by all opponents. It can be said truthfully that no team faced Crown Point this season with the confidence of an easy victory. Any team that beat the Bulldogs had to batter the Bulldog spirit all the way. Future teams will look back with pride at the 1939 team as an important cog in the wheel that developed the true Bulldog spirit in Crown Point athletics.

VALPARAISO 26; CROWN POINT 0.

The initial game of the season was played against Valparaiso on the home grounds. Valpo brought a team that was faster and more experienced than any team the Bulldogs faced all season. The green-shirted visitors settled down and battled to a 26 to 0 win on a very muddy field. Incidentally, Valpo was undefeated all season against many bigger schools than Crown Point, which takes some of the sting out of our defeat.

LOWELL 0; CROWN POINT 6.

On September 16, the Bulldogs traveled to Lowell and there dealt the Reddevils a 6 to 0 defeat. The highlight of the game came late in the second quarter when Lowell came to within the Crown Point five-yard marker three times only to be held to downs each time. After that the Bulldogs found themselves and outbattled their opponents the rest of the game.

WEST LAFAYETTE 20; CROWN POINT 6.

The West Lafayette game on September 22 was another thriller. After traveling all the way to Lafayette the boys simply couldn't get started. As a consequence, the West Lafayette eleven came out ahead 20 to 6. The game was closer than the score shows. Lafayette was hard-pushed several times but each time the Bulldogs couldn't get the last push to score. The contest was a hard-fought, cleanly-played one.

GRIFFITH 0; CROWN POINT 33.

Playing once again on their home field, the Bulldogs showed their heels to Griffith's Panthers in a 33 to 0 victory. The game was well-played by Crown Point who took advantage of every opportunity. Co-captain Jim Haniford was the star of the game with 27 points chalked up by his name.

RENSSELAER 19; CROWN POINT 0.

In the first of two afternoon games, the Bulldogs dropped a decision to Rensselaer. Playing at Rensselaer with the temperature around the eighties was no snap; however, the Bulldogs played hard and well at all times. Co-captain King was slightly hurt in the second half, which had much to do with the 19 to 0 score.

HOBART 13; CROWN POINT 13

On October 15 the Bulldogs played another "hot" afternoon game, this time at Hobart. The Brickies were a cocky bunch when they took the field, but the Bulldogs took the air out of their sails in a hurry. With the score tied 13 to 13 in the final quarter, Crown Point's hopes were raised and lowered three times when red and white clad players dashed over for touchdowns only to have them called back because of penalties. Only tough luck kept the Bulldogs from winning their third victory.

TOLLESTON 6; CROWN POINT 26

The Bulldogs made up for the Hobart game the next week when they faced Tolleston's Blue Raiders and a 40-mile gale in a battle royal at Gary. After the ice-laden wind had blown the dust off the field, the score-board showed a 26 to 6 win for the Bulldogs. Again the Crown Pointers had come through with their fighting spirit to win.

LOWELL 9; CROWN POINT 6.

After the Tolleston game, the Bulldogs were well prepared to face the Reddevils of Lowell again. Having been defeated once on their own grounds, the Lowellians were out for revenge. They got it, but only after one of the most exciting games ever seen in Crown Point. The two thousand fans that lined the field saw the Bulldogs come back from a 9 to 6 disadvantage to a fine scoring position on the three yard line only to have a fumble cost them the score. A fourth quarter score prevented a shut-out. Lowell's win was largely due to two trick plays that confused the locals and threw them off balance.

MOROCCO 6; CROWN POINT 0.

The Bulldogs closed their season on November 4 with a 6 to 0 defeat at the hands of a fast Morocco team. The game was close from start to finish with the speed of the Morocco backfield the deciding factor in the outcome.

Although the season was not the best, it did net for the Bulldogs the Little-Four Conference championship. By virtue of their wins over Griffith and Tolleston, and their tie with Hobart, the Bulldogs were first place honor men. On the Little-Four all-conference team announced at the end of the season, we found four Crown Point boys—Co-captains Haniford and King, Harvey Knesek and Wentel Buche. Haniford and King were honored again when they were given honorable mention on the all-state prep team. It is hoped that the Bulldogs of 1939 will continue to better the fine record shown by this year's eleven. With almost a complete lineup of experienced players and a host of reserves, Coach Ferris will have a good chance to prove to the public that Crown Point is to be feared on the gridiron at all times.

The basketball team this year roused itself from its long lethargy and established a record of 5 wins and 15 losses. The Bulldogs were handicapped by lack of experienced material, but they kept fighting and did win several tough games.

The Invitational Holiday Tournament was held at Crown Point on December 28 and 29. The Eight teams participating were: Crown Point, Hobart, Edison, Tolleston, Griffith, Calumet Township, and Merrillville. Crown Point's efforts were rewarded with third place honors. After having lost to Tolleston in their first round game, Crown Point met and vanquished both Merrillville and Wheeler. The latter game was the consolation game, before the finals and was decided only when Jim Haniford hit a basket in an over-time period. Edison won the tournament for the second time.

"B" TEAM BASKETBALL

First Row—John Biegel, John Pinter, Mr. Bowen, Wayne Carlson, Dick Bowen.
Second Row—Clarence Wente, Bob Feighner, Garth Griffin, Lee Westbay, Gerald Fiegle.

Third Row—Ralph Henderlong (Mgr.) Rodney Gervais, Elwood Kelsey, Walter Ringen, Phillip Brown, Richard Kline.

Coach Bowen's "B" team was a very successful organization this season with a record of ten wins and nine losses. Securing material for the varsity was Mr. Bowen's task, and he was rewarded by the advancement of several players. His other boys also advanced in knowledge and ability and will bolster the varsity in the future.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL TEAM

First Row—Jim Harris (Manager).

Second Row—Harold Horst, Bob Pierce, Jimmy Knight, Bud Church, Herbert Whitehead.

Third Row—Edward Casey, Paul Frame, Bill Nassau, Charles Shutz, Gerald Horst.

Fourth Row—Mr. Bowen, Bob Barkley, Charles McFadden, Don Kline, Ralph Henderlong (Manager).

The freshman team started the season with high hopes of having another good season after their junior high year's record. Their hopes were fulfilled when, at the end of the season, they had won seven and lost three. Their victories over Tolleston and Hobart in the Little Four Freshman Tourney at Griffith won for them the Little Four championship which was quite an honor.

Coach Bowen has taught these boys, not only the fundamentals of passing, dribbling, and shooting, but also, how to play the game fairly and squarely with fighting spirit.

The future looks bright for these boys. They are the varsity of tomorrow, and they look like championship material.

The results of games played are as follow:

GIRLS' VARSITY

First Row—Velda Seramur, Leone Bruce, Mildred Dickens, Helen Tennant.

Second Row—Helen Bruce, Lillian Wietbrock, Bea Sellers, Miss Dice, Jeanette Bruce, Mary Davis, Gladys Kinne.

Following the class basketball tournament in which the senior girls again captured the championship, Miss Dice, athletic director, chose the basketball varsity team for '39.

Due to their outstanding work and co-operation on the class teams, ten girls were selected for this honor. These girls represent the three upper classes. The seniors came first by contributing seven members, the sophomores second, with two; and the juniors third, with one.

The basis on which these girls are chosen is their knowledge of the game, the rules, and their attitude toward fellow players and officials.

The members of the 1939 basketball varsity are as follows: forwards—Gladys Kinne, Leone Bruce, Bea Sellers, Lillian Wietbrock, and Velda Seramur; guards—Jeanette Bruce, Helen Bruce, Mildred Dickens, Helen Tennant and Mary Davis.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

First Row—Gladys Kinne, Mildred Dickens, Helen Bruce, Jeanette Bruce, Miss Dice, Leone Bruce, Bea Sellers, Janet Place, William Wietbrock, Martha Young.
 Second Row—Jacqueline Bouressa, Geraldine Phillips, Florence Steuer, Donalds King, Lila Vick, Stella Houldson, Marjorie Golden, Rita Bohling, Helen Tennant, Helen Mikuta, Rosemary Biegel.
 Third Row—Mary Nowiskie, Norma Jean Nethery, Mary Margaret Ziese, Jane Heinze, Janet Adank, June Buyer, Margaret Miller, Alice Goethal, Charlotte Kaiser, Dorothy Ross.
 Fourth Row—Edris LaCroix, Vela Seramur, Anna Nassau, Mildred Selkow, Esther Abramson, Dorothy Andrews, Joan Hannon, Bernice Lae, Emma Niemeyer, Virginia Cole, Vera Mae Phillips.
 Sixth Row—Arlene Price, Louise Swope, Phyllis Wietbrock, Florence Barman, Wanda Anderson, Mary Ellen Pettit, Martha Whitehead, Lois Woods.
 Seventh Row—Betty Osborne, Jean Firman, Alice Whitehead, Betty Kindberg, Roberta Hannon, Helen Ringen, LaVerne Hack.

The Girls' Athletic Club, under the direction of Miss Dice, started off its '38-'39 season by electing their officers as follows: President, Helen Bruce; Vice-president, Leone Bruce; Secretary, Janet Place; Treasurer, Pat Pettibone.

The Letterman Club and G. A. A. sponsored a dance in honor of our gridmen. The dance was a grand success with the whole "crowd" turning out to see Jane Heinze, junior, elected queen of the pigskin world of C. P. H. S.

With the starting of the new semester a new crew was elected to lead the organization—President, Leone Bruce; Vice-president, Beatrice Sellers; Secretary, Janet Place; Treasurer, Gladys Ann Kinne.

After the holidays the basketball season got under way with the senior six out to defend their record of "all wins". The seniors handed down a 22-10 defeat to the sophomores in the finals on the Community building hardwood.

During the year nine members of the senior basketball team were awarded a red and white C. P. coat-sweater, each having obtained 1500 points. The girls to receive their sweaters were: Beatrice Sellers, Leone Bruce, Gladys Ann Kinne, Jeanette Bruce, Mildred Dickens, Helen Bruce, La Verne Hack, Mary Davis, and Helen Mikuta.

MUSICAL PATTERNS

OUR BAND

Crown Point has a well organized and uniformed band. It is organized and perfected under a military system, a system of merits and demerits that promotes efficiency and obedience. The officers in this system are: Captain, Dick Nichols; First Lieut., Donald Casey; Second Lieut., Louise Swope; Quartermaster, Russell Simpkins; Sergeant, Mary Ellen Pettit; and Corporals, Margaret Jane Palmer, Martha Whitehead, Charles McFadden, Bill Gullic and Julius Griesel. Student directors are Bea Sellers and Dick Nichols.

The band practices and rehearses diligently for various concerts, contests and programs. The concerts of the year were November 5, and March 17.

We are proud to claim the "snappy, high-stepping" baton twirlers, Mary Ellen Pettit, Charles McFadden and Bill Gullic; to say nothing of Jimmy Knight, our handsome young Drum-Major.

The band has sponsored several activities to raise sufficient funds to send the band members to the various contests this spring. A few of these activities are, a dinner, a raffle, a movie, a donkey basketball game, a tag day, and a St. Patrick's Day Dance.

Under the direction of Mr. Eldon Ready, our band has been converted into a fine playing and marching band. Each year we say our band is the best band Crown Point has ever had; but it seems to me that it improves with years, which verifies the statement that "Preparedness is the Keynote to Success."

Eighth Row—Hazel Nichols, Theodora Jebens, Charlotte Kaiser, Shirley Forsythe, Ardith McCarty, Roberta Hannon, Janet Adank, Lorretta Burbulis, Marjorie Zurbruggen, Mary Bendza, Anna Belle Schneider.

The choral department is a very large and active organization consisting of the following groups: The Girls' Ensemble, Boys' Ensemble, Boys' Quartet, Triple Trio, and the High School Choir of ninety-five voices. The outstanding concert of the first semester was the annual Music Festival, on Sunday, December 11, 1938.

Before Christmas vacation, the traditional custom of singing Christmas carols in the corridors was carried out again with organ accompaniment.

The smaller groups appeared frequently before the various clubs and organizations and also took part in numerous assembly programs.

During the second semester the entire chorus made its second appearance of the year at the Music Festival on May 4-5. The grades presented a program on the night of May 4 and the high school choir presented a program on the night of May 5. The chorus will also present the music for the Baccalaureate service, May 21.

This year's graduating class would like to express our appreciation to Mrs. Thomas for her unlimited patience and for her efforts in training various groups for public appearances.

DEBATE

The debate squad this year received valuable experience both in public speaking and in association with other students in other schools. They visited Purdue and Indiana Universities where debate conferences were held, and they also attended many contests in other schools. Needless to say, they had a great deal of fun at all these places and enjoyed meeting other high school students with whom they became friendly. Having had one year of experience, the varsity derived more pleasure from debating and were better able to think on their feet since they did not become "scared stiff" every time they spoke.

Upholding the proposition, "Resolved: That the United States should form an alliance with Great Britain", as affirmatives were Helen Mikuta, first speaker, and Shirley Benson, second speaker. The negative speakers were Mary Davis, first, and Bill Carroll, second. These four students constituted the first team while Melvin Crawford and Hank Wheeler were the second team affirmatives and Victoria Sato and Jack Tadman, the negatives.

In the first contest of the year at Hammond High School, Crown Point carried off the honors in extemporaneous speaking. The next event of the season was the Purdue conference, which was attended by representatives from high schools from all over the state. This was followed by a number of practice debates. In the district contest, Crown Point defeated Lew Wallace and Griffith, split with Edison, and was defeated by Wheeler. Lew Wallace won the district but was later defeated by George Rogers Clark of Hammond who had previously overwhelmed Hammond High School, last year's state champs. Our squad then attended a contest at Indiana, had some more practice debates, and finally, attended the National Forensic League conference at Purdue which was the last official event. At this, the finalists were Hammond High School and George Rogers Clark. Hammond won and was thereby eligible to compete in the national contest.

DRAMATICS

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

The senior class play, "Spring Fever", directed by Miss Kennedy, was presented on April twenty-first. The play was a farce based on the lives of several college students in the few days before their graduation. One of the students, Ed Burns, was a self-styled chemist and was working on a substitute for dynamite. Howard Brant did not get his biology theme to his professor on time, and therefore was not to be allowed to graduate. However, Aunt Maude inveigles the biology professor, Anne brings her father around by a staged fainting fit, and, by hook or crook, all ends well to the amusement and enjoyment of the audience.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The junior class play, "Seventeen", based on Booth Tarkington's famous book, was presented on October twenty-first. The cast members were directed by Miss Kennedy. After three weeks of rehearsals, the play was presented despite last minute qualms over unlearned parts and hectic search for an old wash boiler. The audience especially enjoyed Willie's agonies over not being quite soon enough for Lola. Lola's dog and baby talk, Genesis, negro drawl, and Jane's frustration of Willie's plans, furnished further entertainment.

Just to give you an "inkling"—this year's Inklings staff "started things humming" right away in September by securing one hundred sixty-five subscribers in a fast-moving campaign under the able direction of Mr. Baker, journalism supervisor.

The Inklings has been edited bi-monthly by the journalism students, many in the class being Quill and Scroll members, and by the commerce department. Each edition consisted of ten or eleven sheets; the cost was thirty-five cents for a year's subscription. Our school paper includes news of all sports events, club activities, announcements, and school doings generally.

CROWN POINT HIGH SCHOOL'S 1939 NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Crown Point High School's 1939 National Honor Society is divided with seven girls and three boys as the new members.

The selection was made by the faculty, who based their decisions on the student's scholastic standing, character, leadership, and service.

The new National Honor Society will have their names placed alongside the names of members of the previous nine graduating classes on the society's plaque, which hangs in the lower hall.

May the honors that have come to these ten National Honor Society seniors as a reward for their thoughtful efforts, serve to inspire the future classes of Crown Point High School toward higher goals!

Hi-Y Land First District Conference

The main accomplishment of the Hi-Y club this year, under the sponsorship of Mr. Baker, was the first district conference held here. We were awarded this privilege this year because of our previous activity and good name. Other activities carried through in other years were abandoned this year in order that the boys might make a complete success of this conference.

This year the membership was somewhat restricted and the group a little more select. Talks by several well known speakers gave variety and interest to meetings. The check room proved successful. The club's motto, "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character", was further enhanced by the capable leadership of the following officers: President, Bill Carroll; Vice-President, Don Casey; Secretary, Dick Kammert; Treasurer, Harry Wheeler; and Reporter, Clifford McElwee.

LIMELIGHTS OF 1938-'39

- September 6—School begins with a bang!
- September 9—Football, Valparaiso, here.
Opening game of the season lost to Valpo, 26-0.
- September 16—Football, Lowell, there.
C. P. H. S. trips Lowell 6-0 before a crowd of 5,000 fans. The Bulldogs pull a complete reversal over their previous performance to turn the tables on the "Red Devils".
- September 30—Football, Griffith, here.
In a one-sided game, the Bulldogs vanquish the Griffith eleven in the first real C. P. scoring outburst of the season. One reason for the zip and snap—dedication game for the new lighted field.

- October 14—Big Sister Party.
Following the custom of former years, the senior girls take their "freshie" sisters under their wings.
- October 15—Football, Hobart, there.
Bulldogs outplay Hobart Brickies but tie 13-13. C. P. has the ball in their possession most of the time and would have scored twice had the scores not been called back because of penalties. The boys display real team work and show some effective blocking.
- October 21—Junior Play, "Seventeen".
A a rip-roaring, hilarious, romantic comedy, gives highlights on our FUNNY high school LOVE AFFAIRS.
- October 22—Football, Tolleston, there.
Scrappy Bulldogs take Tolleston to show them what real football is.
- October 26—Basketball Season Opens.
Practice really starts in earnest with several of the football boys becoming mainstays of the squad. Under the watchful eye of Mr. Bowen, assistant coach, all the inspired young athletes puff around the community floor.
- October 28—Teachers' Institute at East Chicago.
OH BOY! A day's vacation.
- October 31—School Carnival.
At twelve o'clock, Monday night, "Queen Bea" and "King Bruce" are chosen the lucky ones to reign over the school, until next year. This is the first time the class of "39" has one of its candidates elected. Carnival—an over-whelming success.
- November 6—Band Concert (SUNDAY)
Band program celebrates American Education Week. Program includes talk given by representative of American Legion, band number led by Hubert Warren of Emerson High, and presentation of baton to John Fisher, who has been of outstanding service to the band.
- November 6-12—American Education Week.
Posters much in evidence.
- November 11—Basketball, Wolcott, there.
With but one week's practice, Bulldogs lose opener to Wolcott, 25-19.
- November 18—Young chosen Yell Leader.
Because Dick Kammert, our former boy cheer leader went out for basketball, a substitute is put in his place.
- November 19—Lettermen—G. A. A. "Sweater Hop".
Dance attended by large crowd with the music of Silver King's Orchestra Junior class very proud to put over their candidate, Jane Heinze, as "Football Queen".
- November 24-25—Thanksgiving Vacation—and TURKEY!
- November 29—Football players distinguished.
Four football players selected for the LITTLE FOUR all-conference team—J. Haniford, W. Buche, L. King, and Harvey Knesek.
- December 10—Basketball, Griffith, here.
Bulldogs beat Griffith for first win of year, 25-23. C. P. breaks two jinx's when they defeat the Panthers on the locals' floor.
- December 11—Music Festival (Sunday)
- December 17—Hi-Y Girl Reserve Dance, "Hayseed Hop".
Hi-Y boys came through with successful dance. Decorations in Christmas regalia.
- December 21—Quill and Scroll Initiation.
Ten new members. Girl initiates transform themselves into handsome masculine appearing mortals by wearing trousers, shirts, neckties, plus dashing side-burns.
- December 23-Jan. 2—Christmas Vacation.
Long hours to play!

December 28-29—Tourney.

Bulldogs win consolation tourney against Wheeler 27-25. The only overtime of the tourney.

January 13—First semester ends.

With a "burst" of joy.

January 23—Staff Assembly.

Annual Staff presented with much gusto as it makes its way through the huge replica of the 1939 yearbook to the front of the stage, where the virtues of the big, colorful annual are explained. Seniors put forth every effort to make it the best book Crown Point High School has seen.

February 16—School given sound projector.

PSI IOTA XI present C. P. Schools with new sound projector for educational films and lectures.

February 17—Basketball, Lowell, here.

Bulldogs get revenge in their second Lowell game when they whip the Red Devils 21-17. Game was closely fought all the way, with C. P. defense the major attraction.

February 17—Sophomore Dance, "Bulldog Wag".

Entertaining and successful hop follows Lowell game. Sponsored by sophs with music of Norman Care's orchestra.

March 2-3-4-1. H. S. A. A. Sectional Basketball tourney at East Chicago.

Bulldogs open first game of tourney by taking defeat from Edison of East Gary 55 to 39.

March 10—Father Westendorf entertains students.

Students greatly amused by the Father's humorous and witty talking. ~~and devoted to~~ his answering questions from the student body.

March 10—Athletic Carnival

Under the supervision of Mr. Ferris and Miss Dice, many laughs and much entertainment is enjoyed by large crowd.

March 15—Class Play chosen.

Senior officers meet today to select "Spring Fever" to be presented April 21.

March 17—Band Concert.

Large crowds attend second band concert of the year. Guest conductor—Mr. Nile Hovey of Hammond, Bandmaster of George Rogers Clark High School.

March 17—Band Booster's Dance.

Following concert, the evening is completed by St. Patrick's Dance with music furnished by Joe Horn's orchestra.

April 7-11—Easter Vacation.

Everybody decked out in his new Easter bonnet.

April 21—School Play, "Spring Fever".

A collegiate farce in which chemical explosions play major part. Last chance for seniors to "show off" acting ability. They really did this with a "bang".

May 4-5—Music Festival.

Both evenings attended by an interested group of spectators. High school choir clad in white is ably directed by Mrs. Thomas.

May 20—Junior-Senior Reception.

Most beautiful event of the year, with each class trying to outdo the other.

May 21—Baccalaureate.

May 23—School's Out!

Oh! Boy!—no books, no nothin'! Ain't goin' ta study war no more!

May 23—Commencement.

So long, seniors! Best Luck!

the 1990s, the number of people with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Foundation 2000). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the general population, and the incidence of mental health problems has increased in the prison population.

There is a growing awareness of the need to address the mental health needs of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners. The Department of Health (2000) has also published a strategy for mental health services, which includes a commitment to improve the mental health of prisoners.
